EASTERN HORSES AT WORK.

With the spring meeting at Aqueduct track to open next Monday, trainers whose charges are quartered at the various metropolitan tracks feel that the beginning of the "regular" campaign is at hand and so are pushing their horses along as fast as is compatible with safety. Work done last Sunday is thus reported by Morning Telegraph:

"At the Gravesend course the readying-up exercises were indulged in by pretty nearly all of the big strings, and the speed shown was much on the fast side. The neatest performance of the morning was furnished when owner and trainer Leigh sent the great mare May Hempstead a mile 1:47. The six furlongs was turned at a fast clip, and the daughter of Patron—Lillie Hempstead was eased up through the last quarter. The three-year-olds Vulcan, Ildrim, Nansen and another stepped the six furlong distance in 1:22 and 1:23. Of the younger division that were speeded over the fast track, Ziegfeld, Silurian, Lord Roberts, Silver Belle and others were allowed half mile turns in 52 and 53 seconds. The others of Mr. Leigh's extensive string got short breathers at half speed.

"It was work day for the P. J. Dwyer lot and Trainer McCabe sent them over the course at conspicuously good clips. The three-year-old Rochester negotiated six furlongs in 1:22. Half Time did the trick in 1:24. Miller breezed the half mile ground in 52 seconds. Marblehead was asked a mile in 1:53. His Royal Highness clipped off six furlongs in 1:25. Withers turned the same distance at about a two-minute clip. The three-year-old Borough, with Terry McGovern's young brother having the leg up, got a short trip at half speed. Young McGovern has a good seat, and Trainer McCabe thinks that with attention to business he will make a rider.

"W. M. Barrick's James and Lew Kraft got three furlong breathers in 44 seconds. McMeekin and a stable mate reeled off the same distance in 42 seconds. The youngsters of the string trotted and cantered.

"Trainer Fred Burlew, of the Newton Bennington string, was among the earliest on the ground, and several of his charges were sent over the course in a useful way. The youngster, Bellario, by Belvidere—Madge Stuart, and the three-year-old, Long Isle, rattled off the half mile course in 51. Bellario appreciated the presence of a running mate and stepped his paces gallantly. Olea tripped six furlongs nicely in 1:22. Antithesis reeled off a half in 52 seconds.

"Frank Taylor's Waring got a six furlong turn in 1:22. Precursor raced over the same ground in 1:22. Tillo was allowed good jogging exercise.

"Trainer Fred Mossom selected the day for a training one for his string of five youngsters, and they went through their exercises as neatly as any string at the track. Mary McCoy, Goddess of Night, Prince of Song and Mavada, going in pairs, negotiated the half mile ground in 52 and 53 seconds. Ondurdis rattled off the same distance in 51 seconds. Many of Mr. Mossom's lot are tiptoppers in looks, and as they have answered every question in the right way they should do him credit.

"W. C. Daly came from his home on Daly's lane, and with a great show of bustle and energy, sent Leedsville five furlongs in 1:04. It was the record of the track this season. Prestige turned the same distance in 1:08. Several others of his racers were sent over the ground at a slower rate.

"J. H. Carr's Elfin Conig and Wait Not clipped off six furlongs in 1:21. The handsome Grey Jacques and a set of two-year-olds trotted and cantered.

"E. L. Graves' King Barleycorn was asked a mile turn in 1:53. Blueaway, who looks most presentable, and another turned the same ground in 1:54. The stable's handicap candidate, Box, and others got jogging exercises on the Brooklyn boulevard.

"J. L. Holland's youngsters, The Golden Prince, by Prince of Monaco—Cassella, and Lief Prince, by Prince Lief or Bermuda—Natalie, who are in charge of trainer Ed Steele, did a half in 53 seconds handily.

"William Donohue's Standing trotted and cantered and got a short breather through the backstretch at half speed. Standing is looking in fine shape, and the trainer who prepared Lazzarone for his win in the Suburban, expects him to show to advantage.

"Trainer William Hueston sent J. W. Colt's two-year-old, The Jade, a quarter in 25 seconds.

"At Morris Park: Raffaello, of the Rogers lot, was breezed along at a good pace, but was not in any way extended. The two-year-olds in the stable occupied the most of his attention. Some of them performed creditably. At least four of the lot are capable of going to the half mile post from the stand inside of 50 seconds.

"A J. Joyner was out early and his horses were galloped in the presence of David Gideon and John J. Hyland. The latter was funny and exercised his wit on Joyner's obesity. That genial trainer has expanded wonderfully in girth since he went into winter quarters. The lot in Joyner's charge show evidence of good care and skilful management. Ethelbert, the pride of the stable, was permitted to rate along and cover a mile in 1:48, the fastest mile that has been worked at Morris Park up to date. He is in superb condition, his coat shines like satin, his eye is bright and full of fire, and Joyner thinks funnier things will happen than Ethelbert winning one or more of the handicaps.

"David Garrick is a counterpart of Ben Holaday, and the experts look forward to some excellent racing when this slashing son of Hanover goes to the post in the three-year-old division. The Chamberlain takes to his work well, appears to do all that is asked of him without undue persuasion, and yet many of the trainers believe that he is in the 'gold brick' class.

"Maribert has improved amazingly in the last three weeks. He has shed his old coat and has already assumed his spring costume of silken hair, and William Oliver says he is good enough to go on dress parade on Fifth avenue Easter Sunday. The Lorillard two-year-olds were galloped and presented such an imposing appearance that the veteran John Hines mistook them for aged horses. By the way, the latter has Lambert, the property of Michael Clancy, hard at work and is preparing her for the Aqueduct meeting.

"William Oliver is in a quandary as to what he will do with his horses, for they are all so fast that it bothers Mr. Oliver to time them. Old Warrenton was meandering around the track, blanketed and hooded as if his trainer was giving him what the English term a 'sweating gallop.' A committee was appointed to wait on Mr. Oliver and ascertain what he meant by such proceedings. Sir William haughtily surveyed the committee, assured them that it was none of their blankety blank business and said: 'These "dogs" are going to make me sweat all summer, and I want my portion of the fun at once.'

"At Sheephead Bay, where the weather and track conditions were about the same as at the Gravesend course, there was some clever work accomplished.

"E. F. Simms' The Kentuckian, who is an

Winner—B. f. by Kinglike—Sandola.
Went to post at 3:20. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Cupidity was best and easily outran her field all the way. Grandeur worked his way through his field and, joining issue with Thermos through the last sixteenth, got second place in the last few strides. Thermos was used too much in the first half and was tiring at the end. Mail Bag was in heavy going all the way and received an easy ride. Slow Time was cut off at the three-eighths post and dropped out of contention. Jack Gay ran a fair race.

Winner—Rn. c. by Silver Fox—Tonique.
Went to post at 4:00. At post 5 minutes. Start good for all but Lady Esterling. Won handily; second easily. Tonicum was bumped into at the start and had to be hard ridden to get up but he was drawing away at the end. Albert Enright was well handled and ran his race. Seip was in the deep going in the last quarter. Lambkin looked big when going to the post. He showed speed but tired in the stretch. Clodhopper bolted to the outside rail at the stretch turn. Lady Esterling was practically left.

Scratched—17215 Frank Morrison, 104.

"Lewis Elmore's Sarmatian and Strathconan,

Ginger was turned a half in 56 seconds.

"A. L. Aste's Sadducee, whose late illness has rounding to nicely. He was allowed good open air exercise in a paddock near his barn and frisked about enough to show that he is fast coming to himself.

"Trainer Thomas Mannix's Plucky, which has also been ailing a bit, got galloping exercise on the track, and in a short time will be ready for training."

Went to post at 5:35. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second easily.
Petit Maitre was best and well ridden, but had to be hustled along all through the stretch.
Owensboro carried The Jefferson into the deep going at the first turn and kept him there all down the backstretch, causing the latter to tire. Althea was waited with too long and could not get up.

Went to post at 1:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Morelia came on from seventh place at the head of the homestretch passing the others without trouble. She is very good in such going as today's. Artilla has improved and is also good in soft going. Bona showed speed for a half mile and then tired. Lew Zara led to the final sixteenth and should win a maiden race at five furlongs. My Dear soon wearied in the mushy course.

Winner—Ch. g. by Take Notice—Happy Maiden.
Went to post at 2:00. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second handily. Rollick was clearly best and is a stake youngster in slush. Floranthe ran well and is a vastly improved filly. Chaste was speedy for three and a half furlongs and then tired. Irate ran a fair race. Moonbright's rider pulled up at the start. This destroyed his chances.

Winner—B. g. by King Galop—Narka.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Perseus relished the soft mud and easily ran away from the others when Henry cut him loose. Storm King was cut off by Perseus when a little less than three furlongs from home. Otherwise he would have been much closer up. Dolore ran to her best form. Dog Town slipped around like a boy on smooth ice.

Winner—Ch. h. by Strathmore—Black Maria.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Captive loved the brand of mush dished up today, went the shortest way around and was going away at the finish. Opponent was well ridden, but it was not his kind of going. Catastrophe slipped badly. He is best on dry going. Jennie Reid's saddle slipped, but for which she would have been a keen contender.
Captive, place, 8 to 5; show, out. Opponent, place, 8 to 5; show, out. Catastrophe, place, out. Jennie Reid, place, 1 to 2; show, out.

Espirando ran well and finished fast and strongly. Moringa was best and would have won but for a bad start. Miss Marion ran well to the homestretch. Royal Prize finished fast. St. Apollinaris and Torsina showed speed but both quit in the stretch. Afghan did not like the mud.
Scratched—17118 Mafada, 114; (17277) De Blaise, 114; 17157 St. Cuthbert, 111; 17273 Euterpe, 109.

Went to post at 4:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Sardine was much the best. She is a wonder on a mushy course and the issue was never in doubt. Cromwell went the shortest way round and was clearly second best. Fille d'Or closed resolutely. Mark her among maidens. Alleviate is not in good form and quit badly in the homestretch.
